

What is God calling you to do?

We all have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently, if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

Romans 12:6-8

List the gifts from the passage that you believe that God has given you. Then, think about how you use those gifts in everyday life and how you use them to God's purpose.

List your gifts	How do you use this gift in everyday life?	How do you use this gift in your faith?

Look at at the list of gifts again. Is there a way that you could use your gifts to greater use for God?

Lord of life,
We thank you for the gifts you have given us-
The things we do well and enjoy doing,
The things that bring happiness to us,
And contribute to the happiness of those around us.

All:

Lord of life, teach us to use the gifts you have given us
To play our part in the life of our fellowship and MU society.

We thank you for the gifts of others-
Those things they can do which we cannot,
The talents that they have which we have not.
The skills they offer that complement our own,
And the qualities they display
Which in so many ways enrich our lives.

All:

Lord of life, teach us to appreciate the gifts of those around us;
To appreciate the contribution they make to our lives.

Lord, teach us to recognize those things we do well
And those things others can do better.

All:

Teach us that we all belong together;
And each one of us has something to give and to receive.

Teach us to see the worth of every human being

All:

And to understand you have a special place for each one of us
In the body of Christ, for in His name we pray.

AMEN
